fashion trauma Ever

Call her... J.(cut too)Lo

Jennifer Lopez is a fashion risk-taker — but in this wild style, she took it a little too far. The ruffles and busy print are enough to overwhelm even a diva, and the belly- and thigh-baring cuts seem better suited to party-girl Paris Hilton than this style icon. Fashion expert Danna Weiss says, "If the cut were a little less skimpy and the ruffles were confined to the skirt," her sexy self would show through.

HER WINNING LOOK

More ruffles, a low V-neck, extra material on the bottom balances out the dress and keeps it from looking trashy.

Weiss suggests "boot-cut jeans, a smaller belt buckle, a white tee and stilettos" to look less costumey.

GOOD THING SIMON DOESN'T CRITIQUE THE OTHER JUDGES

The whole color scheme in Paula Abdul's outfit clashes, while her accessories are one size too big. Weiss suggests "boot-cut jeans, a smaller belt buckle, a white tee and stilettos" to look less costumey.

celebs strike out, but can these Oops! outfits be saved?

IT'S HER FIRST DAY OF CLOWN COLLEGE!

Marsha Thomason has way too many colors on, making it look like she got dressed in the dark! The Las Vegas star should wear only one bright piece and try the others in neutral tones.

to try a fun suit look, Weiss suggests "a skinny black pencil suit and a white dress shirt with a red tie" for a splash of color.

THE REASON OUTFITS NEED EXPIRATION DATES

Juliette Lewis' '80s rocker outfit is best left in a time capsule. But if she wants to try a fun suit look, Weiss suggests "a skinny black pencil suit and a white dress shirt with a red tie" for a splash of color.

Weiss suggests cutting the pants into short-shorts and pairing them with a pink chiffon top."

HEY LEELEE, IT'S NASHVILLE NOT TRASHVILLE!

Leelee Sobieski should dress more like the 22-year-old starlet she is, and less like a retired ranch-hand. Weiss suggests "cutting the pants into short-shorts and pairing them with a pink chiffon top."
