UMA THURMAN

WHY IT WORKS "She's very real, and the dress plays into that — it's so flowy and soft," says Jeffrey Kalinsky of Uma, in Christian Dior

Average Score ★★★★★

CATE BLANCHETT

WHY IT WORKS Cate, in Jean-Paul Gaultier, looks "sophisticated and elegant," says Danna Weiss. "She wears fashion so well because she has a fashion-model body"

MISCHA BARTON

WHY IT WORKS "I'm not a fan of cutouts, but Mischa is young enough to pull this off," says Shoshanna Gross of this Azule sparkler

Average Score ★★

PORTIA DE ROSSI

WHY IT WORKS "This is one of her more elegant looks. The neckline is very flattering," says Stacy London of Portia's Valentino sheath

Average Score ★★

DIANE KRUGER

WHY IT WORKS "Diane pushed her red-carpet fashion dangerously close to the edge — but vivre la difference saved her!" says Constance White of this bronze Marchesa

Average Score ★★

TERI HATCHER

WHY IT WORKS "The color and contrasting fabrics project real Hollywood glamour," says Constance White of Teri's custom-designed Donna Karan

Average Score ★★★

RED-CARPET CRITICS

We weighed in with five tough fashion critics and asked each to rate the stars' red-carpet look, from ★ (good) to ★★★★★ (best). Then, we added the totals, and came up with an average final score. The big winner received four stars!
