SPRING 2003

Style Watch

SIGLER'S SIGNATURE LOOK: Young but sophisticated. "I don't like too over-the-top sexy," says the Sopranos star, who found stylist Danna Weiss through an acquaintance. For casual occasions Weiss prefers Sigler in looks that are "a little more funky."

WHY THIS OUTFIT? "Right now it's fun to throw on a pair of pink heels and a great top with your jeans for a simple, sexy look," says Weiss. Another plus: "It's an outfit you can be comfortable in."

THIS SPRING'S MUST-HAVE: "A great-fitting, sexy pair of jeans," like the Earl Jeans Sigler sports here, says Weiss. "She can wear them to a premiere or put on a tank top and play softball."

WORKING RELATIONSHIP: "Danna really listens to what you want, which is rare," says Sigler, who'll marry her manager A.J. Discala in July. "And she understands bodies." For Sigler's "beautiful shoulders and hourglass shape," Weiss explains, "I like pieces that show where her waist is but aren't that tight."

LESSON LEARNED: "Don't be a slave to trends," says Sigler. "If something doesn't look good on your body, it's not for you."

ON SIGLER: Stella McCartney shirt; Jill Stuart shoes; Earl Jeans.
ON WEISS: Jockey top; Earl Jeans; Manolo Blahnik boots; Denim Doctors vintage belt.
