THE OLD SEA OF BLACK DRESSED HAS RUN dry, and a crimson tide is washing over the already-red carpet with stars such as Debra Messing and Liv Tyler slipping into saucier. "Red is striking without being flashy," explains stylist Danna Weiss. The cardinal rule? Keep the style simple and let the bold color speak (or shout) for itself.

Heather Graham, currently Shiny Amen Management with Adam Sandler, looked red hot in Mars Hoffman at the Mr. Deeds premiere.

"Red is striking without being flashy," explains stylist Danna Weiss.

Talk about a siren! Gercelle Beavers-Nixon traded in her ATFP blues for four-alarm red at the 2002 CFDA Fashion Awards.

Debra Messing matched her dress to her flame-red tresses at the Hollywood Ending premiere in Cannes, France.

Liv Tyler, in Alexander McQueen, may reunite with Armageddon costar Ben Affleck for 2003's Jersey Girl.

Actress Gina Gershon falls red over heels in a to-the-floor-and-more gown.

Crossing Jordan's Jill Hennessy stars in a sexy red Richard Tyler sideshow.

Jennifer Tilly is well-red in a slinky sundress at the Lovely & Amazing premiere.

Molly Sims adds a flame-colored flamenco track to her personal house of style.
